Documentation

The document below covers the management of HWEB, the electronic administration platform of students. The manual provides a detailed description of the functions and processes available on the WEB interface.

The documentation is only available to the citizens of Pécs University. To download it, You required to log in, by clicking the icon at the bottom right of the page.

Source URL:https://neptun.pte.hu/en/documentation